

Managing the complex financial aspects of your healthcare business is a daunting task. Leaders need a holistic, intuitive and intelligent solution that drives proactive decisions, empowering them to control costs with precision. In today's ever-changing healthcare environment, having a scalable and adaptable enterprise-wide financial system is critical.

Better Contract Compliance

Medical and surgical product compliance grew 67% over a two-year period in Premier's analysis of three recent Premier ERP implementations compared to hospitals without Premier's ERP solution.

Medical and Surgical Product Compliance

Partnership

We chose to work with Premier because there were clear differentiators with their focus and investment in technology across the healthcare continuum. Quality Advisor, the ERP and seamless analytics – which we can leverage on both the clinical side and quality side of our organization – can be married with supply chain analytics, allowing for a holistic picture and driving smarter purchasing.

– John Horne, senior vice president and chief supply chain officer, OSF Healthcare

Greater Visibility & Control Over Spend

With Premier's Enterprise Resource Planning (ERP) solution, top-performing hospitals (25th percentile) can save millions through standardization and streamlined spend on supplies.
